275 MINERS ARE BURIED

EXPLOSION IN THE MARIANNA
MINE OF PITTSBURG-BUFF-ALO COAL CO.

INSPECTED THREE MINUTES BEFORE

Believed That All Are Dead, 640 Feet in Bowels of Earth—Five Thousand Persons Pleading for Rescue of Relatives.

Marianna, Pa., Nov. 28.—Within three minutes after the state inspector and mine superintendent had returned from an inspection of its depth, the model Marianna mine of the Pittsburgh-Buffalo Coal Co. was blown up by a tremendous explosion today.

Two hundred and seventy-five men are entombed beneath thousands of tons of coal that caved in upon them at a depth of 640 feet, and the authorities do not believe that a single man escaped.

The Marianna mine, which has been in operation less than three months, was considered the model mine of the world. Every device known to modern invention had been installed to prevent just such a tragedy as occurred today; but now, wrecked by a mysterious explosion, the very machinery which was to have made an accident impossible is hampering the rescuers at their work, for they do not understand the wonderful mechanism which bolstered the great mine with such a network of contrivances that the diggers cannot bore through them to the bodies of the men lying dead in the bottom of the shaft.

The explosion came just before the noon hour in the Rachael shaft. It was so terrific that the blast, belching up the whole length of the deep shaft, tore loose the giant elevator cage at the surface of the mine and hurled it 300 feet. Two men in the cage at the time were instantly killed.

Five thousand women, children and miners throng the mouth of the mine, the former weeping piteously and pleading for the rescue of their fathers, husbands and brothers, but impotently, because, for the present, there can be no way devised to reach the entombed men, even though, as is now believed, some of them survived the explosion and still remain alive.

In the excitement and panic it is impossible thus far to learn the exact number of victims or their names, but the books of the company indicate that a majority of the 275 buried in the Rachael are Americans. Most of the others are English miners, imported by the company two months ago to work the richest shafts.

Some of the officials believe it will be necessary to dig through 800 feet of solid coal from No. 3 shaft before they can reach the workings of shaft No. 2.

The mine is not on fire at present, as no smell is issuing either from the fan house or shaft. The shaft is clogged with debris.

Many Bodies Are Recovered.
Marianna, Pa., Nov. 28.—At mid night rescuers, penetrating through a portion of the shaft, came upon 142 bodies. Every man had been killed instantaneously by the debris flung upon them by the explosion.

Many of the remains were badly mangled. Eighteen of the bodies were carried to the top of the shaft and placed in coffins. Six other bodies of those killed in the top shaft have been recovered. Whether more remain in the ruins cannot be known until morning.

ANOTHER BANK ROBBED

Robbers Got $3,200 and Made Escape
On a Handcar.

Cassville, Mo., Nov. 28.—The Citizens' bank of Rocky Comfort, Mo., was robbed today of $3,200.

All of the bank's papers and fixtures were destroyed by the explosion.

The robbers escaped on a stolen handcar.

THE MURDERER IS INSANE

Man Who Killed Mrs. Jennie Orvis
May 31, Last.

Fond Du Lac, Wis., Nov. 28.—Grant Poole, the man who is charged with the murder of Mrs. Jennie Orvis, at Oakfield, May 3, last, is hopelessly insane.

This was the finding of the lunacy commission which has been in session the past few days, inquiring into the mental condition of the man who is charged with one of the most cruel murders in the history of this country.

When all the testimony was in, at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon, Judge Fowler immediately gave his decision, finding Poole to be insane now and incapable of trial.

The Cases Were Dismissed.

The cases of Grace Watts and Frank Jones, negroes, charged with disturbing the peace of Lelia Reynolds, also colored, were dismissed by Judge Leaming Saturday, and the costs taxed against the prosecuting witness.

NEVADA WOMAN SUICIDES

MRS. HARRY C. MOORE DROWN-
ED HERSELF IN PARK LAKE
SATURDAY.

SHE WAS OF A PROMINENT FAMILY

Husband Is Nevada's Largest Dry
Goods Man and Pioneer Citizen
—Body Recovered Late
Saturday Night.

News was received in Sedalia last night of the tragic death of Mrs. Moore, wife of Gen. Harry C. Moore, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Nevada, Mo., who committed suicide by drowning in the Park Springs lake late Saturday evening.

Mrs. Moore was last seen alive by her relatives at 4:30 o'clock, when she left home ostensibly for a brief outing. She was seen to go to the park, of which she was the owner, and when she did not return in a reasonable time search for her was instituted, resulting in the finding of her dead body in the park lake.

The body was recovered between 8:30 and 9 o'clock last night. She is supposed to have drowned herself between 6 and 7:30 o'clock.

The Moores have lived in Nevada over thirty years. They are most widely known in Vernon county, and the tragic death of Mrs. Moore has cast a gloom of sorrow over the entire populace.

The Democrat-Sentinel called up Nevada over the long distance phone last night and no cause could be assigned for Mrs. Moore's deed. She appeared to be in the best of spirits when she left her home in the afternoon, although it was said she had appeared melancholy at intervals the past week, but her condition was never regarded as serious.

Mrs. Moore was the daughter of the late Congressman Burns, a pioneer and wealthy citizen of St. Joseph, Mo.

A JUDGMENT FOR $4,536.00

Was Returned Against Robert Mowbray By Default.

Judgment for the defendant, the Economy Steam Heating company, and by default against defendant, Robert Mowbray, former manager for the company, for $4,536, with eight per cent interest, was returned by Judge Bradley, of Johnson county, sitting for Judge Hoffman, in the Pettis county circuit court Saturday in the case of the Sedalia National bank vs. The Economy Steam Heating company, et al.

Plaintiff's motion for a new trial was overruled and an appeal was granted to the supreme court.

MAY NOT LIVE TO HANG

Herman Billik Collapsed Because of Mother's Death.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 28.—Herman Billik, the alleged murderer of the Vrzal family, to be hanged December 11, has collapsed in his cell because of grief over his mother's death, who died of a broken heart.

It is feared he will not live to hang.

"RAILROADED" TO ASYLUM

In Order That Relatives Might Get Hold of Property.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Evidence before an investigating committee develops the fact that dozens of wealthy persons have been "railroaded" to Dunning insane asylum, near Chicago, to be gotten rid of by relatives in order to secure their property.

FORMER SEDALIAN DEAD

DR. JOSEPH M. FOX PASSED AWAY
AT VICTOR, COLORADO,
SATURDAY.

HE DIED OF PARALYSIS, AGED 75

Resided at Georgetown Before Sedalia Was on the Map—Burial
Will Be at Portland, Oregon.

Died, at Victor, Colorado, at the residence of his daughter, November 28, 1908, Dr. Joe M. Fox, of paralysis, aged 75 years.

The deceased, forty years ago, was about the best known man in Pettis county. He came to this county from Kentucky about 1855 and settled in Georgetown, where he took up the practice of his profession, a physician and surgeon.

Dr. Fox and Miss Sue Spedden were married at Georgetown the first year of the war. Mrs. Fox died in 1863, leaving one son, Hugh Fox. A couple of years later the doctor married Miss Lillie Bouldin, sister of the late Col. D. W. Bouldin. Of this union five children were born, and all six are living, also the mother. The burial will take place at Portland, Oregon.

The Masonic history of the deceased deserves to be recorded. A weary sojourner has laid down to rest.

The pitcher has been broken at the fountain and the wheel at the cistern. Joe Fox took his first three degrees in Masonry in Relief lodge at Georgetown. He also received the degrees of Cryptic Masonry in the secret vault. Likewise he received the Order of the Temple.

Dr. Fox moved to Sedalia from Georgetown in 1863 or 1864, when he became a member of Sedalia lodge No. 236. In 1868 Granite lodge No. 272 was organized and Brother Fox was one of its charter members and its worshipful master under dispensation.

Subsequently he was high priest of Sedalia Royal Arch chapter No. 18. For two terms, 1870 and 1871, he was grand high priest of the grand Royal Arch chapter of the state of Missouri and deputy grand commander in 1870.

In 1870 he moved to St. Louis, when he was engaged in the insurance business. A few years later he moved to Portland, Oregon, where he has since resided.

Dr. Fox never forgot to be a gentleman. His was a sterling character, and he had many attractive personal qualities.

Like the great soldier who shared with him the common faith, and whom he more than once faced in battle, he has "crossed over the river and rests under the shade of the trees."—J. W. Goodwin.

A Social Monday Night.

The social committee of Queen City council No. 564, Knights and Ladies of Security, have prepared an interesting musical and literary program for their regular monthly social to be given in the hall in the Royal Tribe of Joseph building Monday night. Refreshments will be served and dancing indulged in.

BARBER SHOPS TO OPEN

JUDGE WALLACE IS NO LONGER
FEARED BY "ARTISTS" IN KANSAS CITY, MO.

WILL SHAVE ON SUNDAY IN FUTURE

Notice to That Effect Posted in Many Shops—The Lid Is Also Slipping on Cigar Stands and Grocery Stores.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 28.—Many of the proprietors of barber shops in the city, from the notices displayed in their windows, must have reached the conclusion that the Sunday closing crusade of Judge Wallace is about at an end.

The notice, "This shop is open on Sunday," can now be seen in numerous barber shops. The owners of these shops no doubt realize that Judge Wallace—even at the most—can only remain on the criminal bench but a few weeks longer and, consequently, they are willing to take the chances of being overlooked for that length of time.

It is reported that the lid on the cigar and grocery stores is not quite so tight on Sundays as it was some time ago, when Judge Wallace and his grand jury had full control of matters.

It is realized now by nearly every one that the blue law crusade of Judge William H. Wallace will soon be a thing of the past.

POWER HOUSE WAS BURNED

And a Kansas Electric Line Is Put Out of Commission.

Iola, Kas., Nov. 28.—The power house of the Iola Electric Line company was destroyed by fire today. The loss is estimated at $30,000.

The car service of Iola, Gas City and Loharpe is discontinued, only two cars being saved from the fire.

M. K. & T. IN NEW MERGER

ALTON-CLOVER LEAF DESIRES
GULF OUTLET, SAYS NEW YORK DISPATCH.

STREET REPORTS ARE CONFIRMED

Deal Probably Will Go Beyond Traffic
Arrangement, and Consolidation
May Be Result of Pending Negotiations.

New York, Nov. 28.—The Missouri, Kansas & Texas has been associated by rumor with most of the mythical railroad deals of the last four years, but it was learned yesterday that an arrangement is under consideration, although it has not yet reached the proportions of a "deal," by which the road may become the gulf outlet of the Alton-Clover Leaf system.

According to a report in Wall street, conferences have been under way by interests identified with the two railroad systems, as a result of which the Alton may be able to reach the gulf by an arrangement with the Missouri, Kansas & Texas.

Considerable secrecy has been observed regarding these negotiations. One of the leading officials of the Alton and the Toledo, St. Louis & Western, when seen regarding these reports, said that such an arrangement was being talked about. He said it was believed that by building a few additional miles of railway a connection could be made which would give the Alton access to the gulf. Naturally, the Clover Leaf, which controls the Alton, would participate in the new gulf route combination.

By means of such a connection the Alton and Clover Leaf would be in a position to carry traffic from the Great Lakes to the gulf, the Alton from Chicago southward, and the Clover Leaf from Detroit and Toledo, with St. Louis as the gateway. As the Alton and Clover Leaf traverse the middle and western states, an outlet to Galveston for their traffic would naturally serve to broaden the business of both lines.

Banking interests identified with the Missouri, Kansas & Texas professed to be unaware of the plan, although they admitted that they might not have been informed of the tentative negotiations.

So far as could be learned the two railroad groups are not considering a consolidation at the present time, but this is regarded as more than a probability. The negotiations may exceed traffic arrangements.

In the financial district the story was amplified by the intimation that the two systems were ultimately to make a connection with the Southern Pacific, the inference being that E. H. Harriman would take a hand in the deal, after the manner in which he has identified himself with the Wheeling and Lake Erie and other properties. Associates of Mr. Harriman when questioned as to this report, said that they had not heard that he harbored any such plans.

Officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul denied the rumor that the St. Paul might operate the Katy under a guaranty.

The Casualty List Large.

Milwaukee, Nov. 28.—With two days left before the close of the present hunting season, the number of casualties is larger than any year in history except 1907.

ROOSEVELT IS NOT IN IT

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN IS SOME BEAR HUNTER HIMSELF.

HE HAD AN EXCITING EXPERIENCE

Late Candidate Came Near Losing
His Life in Encounter With Wounded Animal—Made a Great Record as Hunter.

Galveston, Texas, Nov. 22.—William Jennings Bryan, who is after big game in the mountains of Chihuahua, Mexico, has had an encounter with a big bear in which he came near losing his life.

After he and other members of the party had chased and fired upon the bear, the animal tumbled over and lay motionless for several minutes.

Thinking the beast dead, Mr. Bryan ran up to it, when suddenly it swung out its paws and grabbed him about the waist.

Quickly jerking free of his coat, which the bear tore to pieces, Mr. Bryan dealt the wounded animal a blow with the butt of his gun.

By this time other members of the party had rushed to the scene and killed the animal.

Three bears have been killed by the party, and they give credit to Mr. Bryan for having dispatched all of them, as well as five deer and mountain lion and other game.

A BANKER GOES TO PRISON

William Montgomery, Former Cashier in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 28.—William Montgomery, former cashier of the Allegheny National bank, which failed for over a million dollars some time ago, was sentenced to serve fifteen years in the Western Pennsylvania penitentiary today by Judge James S. Young, of the United States court. Montgomery was sentenced upon two indictments charging him with embezzlement and the abstraction of over half a million dollars.

THE TURF SITUATION

Is Certain to Brighten Up With Coming of New Year.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 28.—After visiting New Orleans and Hot Springs to look into the turf situation, Rome Reepess, who is interested in race tracks in both places, said tonight that "things would surely brighten up with the coming of the new year."

He predicts forty days' racing for Hot Springs, commencing March 1. No meeting will be attempted at New Orleans on the mile track.

HELD IN THE SUM OF $200

Man Who Stole Case of Booze from the Depot Here.

T. H. McKenna, of Jefferson City, deputy United States marshal; G. H. Pountain, deputy revenue collector; James Card, assistant chief of police, and George Thompson, a patrolman, went to Clinton Saturday morning to arraign before the United States commissioner George Monroe, a stranger here, who stole $15 worth of whiskey from one of the railway freight depots and disposed of one bottle to a local barber.

When arraigned before the United States commissioner Monroe entered a plea of guilty and was held to the United States court in the sum of $200.

PARIS HAS A SENSATION

MME. STEINHEIL WAS WITH THE PRESIDENT OF FRANCE AT TIME OF DEATH.

NOW BELIEVED HE WAS POISONED

And It Is Further Believed That Mme.
Steinheil Deliberately Had Her Husband and Mother Assassinated Last May.

Paris, Nov. 28.—Among the wild reports concerning the Steinheil case which set Paris crazy with excitement is one that the woman has made a confession to M. Andree, the examining magistrate, in which she implicates a cabinet minister, a judge, and several high officials of the judicial branch of the government.

History of the Case.

Paris, Nov. 28.—The Mme. Steinheil case continues to be the sensation of the hour in all France. No one ventures to say where the revelations will end. The political side looms up larger and larger every day, and the interest goes back always to the tragic death in Paris, in 1899, of Felix Faure, president of France.

Faure died in the midst of the Dreyfus excitement. The most minute details of the scene in the room where he expired, in the company of Mme. Steinheil, are today flagrantly published by even republican newspapers.

Up to the present time this incident in the career of Madame Steinheil has only been referred to covertly. Royalist and anti-Dreyfus organs are demanding an official investigation into the death of M. Faure, and intimate openly that M. Faure was the victim of a plot.

They have put forward the old allegation, that M. Faure intended to yield to the petitions of the Dreyfusards and then an order for a revision of the case, and consequently he was poisoned.

The only reason to believe that M. Faure did not die a natural death is found in the fact that his body decomposed with unusual rapidity, and to offset this there are the statements of five of the best known physicians of Paris, who certified that he died of cerebral hemorrhage.

The other story, that Mme. Steinheil was present when he passed away, seems, unfortunately, true, and great regret is expressed that circumstances have now compelled a disclosure to the world of the old scandal which the Faure family and friends of the former president thought was buried with his body.

With regard to the crimes themselves, Mme. Steinheil's husband and her mother, Mme. Japy, were found murdered in the Steinheil home in Paris, May 31, 1898, and at the same time Mme. Steinheil was discovered, bound and gagged. The net is drawing closer around the wife. Stories of her numerous romance affairs with persons of note in political and artistic circles are coming to light daily, and prove what a remarkable woman she was.

The prevailing belief in Paris today is that Mme. Steinheil deliberately had her husband and mother assassinated.

STOCK MARKET UPHEAVAL

Its Certainty increased by the Operations Saturday.

New York, Nov. 28.—Professional operations today only increased the certainty of an upheaval in the stock market. The short interest in the Southern Pacific is so great that the stock is liable to leap ten points any day.

Some very strong operators are caught on the short side, and it is understood they are planning a raid early in the week.

If the raid is attempted it will be one of the times when it will be absolutely safe to buy stock of any kind.

THE PNEUMONIA PERIL.

With the beginning of the winter season physicians more than any others look out for the advent of pneumonia. With the coming of December pneumonia cases become common and an increase is noted in January. February sees a still further increase, and the scourge reaches its climax in March, being nearly always eradicated by the latter part of April. All theories to the contrary, it is not cold which causes pneumonia, but heat.

The crowding together of families in small rooms or houses where the doors and windows are kept closed and everything shut up tight in an effort to keep warm at the least expense of fuel provides not a hot house, but a forcing bed for the germs of the disease.

Say what you will, but every other disease is being combatted more successfully than the one under discussion. Up to ten years ago such a statement would have been hoisted at. The only disease which today causes more deaths than pneumonia is tuberculosis. Gradually tuberculosis is lagging and pneumonia is gaining. The great increase has been due to lack of scientific fighting on the one hand a well waged contest on the other. The germs which cause the disease are dependent on warmth, moisture and darkness for their existence.

An examination of saliva—the pneumonia germ being found primarily in the mouth—showed that at certain periods of the year as high as 45 per cent of the persons examined had the germs present in the mouth. With the germs constantly present, it is not a question of what kind of a disease the patient has, but what kind of a patient the disease has.

The death rate in pneumonia is an almost mathematically accurate deduction from the age, vigor and nutrition of the person attacked. No other disease has such a brutal and inveterate habit of killing the weaklings. The half-stuffed baby in the tenement, the underfed, overworked laboring man, the old man with rigid arteries and stiffening muscles or waning life vigor, the chronic sufferer from malnutrition, alcoholism, Bright's disease, heart disease—these are its chosen victims.

While it has been popularly supposed to be a disease of the lungs, death is nearly always the result of toxic poisoning from the secretions poured into the blood from the diseased portion of the organ.

The new treatment is remarkable and daring, and now instead of a room heated to suffocation with steaming kettles of hot water and other means of securing a soft moist temperature, so common a few years since, the windows are thrown wide open and a free circulation of fresh air is secured, while sunlight and cold are welcomed as curative agents.

In New York hospitals the use of wards open to the weather is being tried with great success, and the "roof garden" treatment is regarded as one of the most successful methods of treating the disease.

It is the prevention rather than the cure which should be studied. Sunlight, dry cool air and clearness will reduce the danger of infection to a minimum. By keeping the general health of the body up to a good moral tone we may be practically immune from danger.

But it is idle to undertake to protect one's self while living or working in hot, unventilated quarters, with little sunlight or clear daylight. The special care of the lungs and air passages is a useless precaution, and a chest protector would do more good if applied to the soles of the feet than on its usual location.

This, at least, is the opinion of Dr. Woods Hutchinson of the pioneer medical practice of New York City.

OFF AND ON.

Last year about this time public school patrons in the large cities were much exercised about the teaching of "love" in the class rooms, but in Chicago there is a new stunt being put on.

At one of the schools the girls are given lessons on "How to alight from a moving street car." There is some sense to this. The dumbest girl in the world knows how to fall in love, but the brightest one on the job never seems to learn not to get off a street car backwards. There is considerable art in getting off a car, in fact, any moving vehicle. It is a pleasure to watch a railroad man drop off a car. He stands on the lower step, his face to the front and his left hand clinging loosely to the hand rail. As the car flies along he catches the motion and at the right moment steps from the car to the pavement as easily as one steps across a velvet rug.

Women and girls almost invariably walk straight out from the steps, just as though walking along a sidewalk. If the car starts before they are clear the foot remaining on the step is sure to be jerked from under them and a bad fall is the result.

The idea of the Chicago High school professor is to have a dummy car run on rails across the gymnasium floor at good speed. Pupils alight from this, and a few lessons makes a girl proficient in the matter. Alighting from the car with the face to the front is a small matter, but it saves many a hard fall.

Von Vlissingen, who stole a couple of millions, received a sentence of less severity than an ordinary horse thief. It is the severity of the sentence which keeps horse thieves operating so sparingly, while it is the lightness of the punishment which makes crime like that of Van Vlissingen and others of his class so common.

And thou, too, Texas! Zapata county, in the Lone Star state, gave 424 votes for Taft and not a ballot for Bryan. Zapata county is away down south of Laredo and is on the Mexican border in the uttermost part of the state. Probably the postmaster told his patrons to vote for Taft and they never heard of anybody else.

It is reported that Washington friends will labor for a cabinet place for John Hays Hammond, the millionaire mining engineer. It is to be hoped that they will be able to make more noise than the friends who had charge of the Hammond vice presidential boom at the Chicago convention.

Tom Johnson says the best of the whole thing is that his friends were ready to stake him when the found that he was broke. Even Tom realizes that most men's friends desert them when the money gives out.

And now a freight shipper has sued a railroad for 40 cents. Thus the fight against corporations goes on with continued vigor.

Senator Platt needn't go to the trouble of resigning; it looks as if they were just going to Root him out.

Speaker Cannon says he is the servant of the house. Well, the servant usually bosses the house.

HICKS THE GROCER

Home From Their Texas Trip.

F. E. Gibbons and Alfred Hunick returned on the M. K. & T. flyer Saturday morning from a ten days' hunting expedition in the vicinity of Galveston, Texas. Their supply of game bagged on the trip was very good evidence of their ability as marksmen, while each enjoyed the trip to the fullest.

Incidentally they met W. W. Hoffman, a former Sedalia train dispatcher, now trainmaster for the M. K. & T. at Smithville, Texas, who is doing well and inquired about a number of Sedalia friends.

ACTRESS SHOT HERSELF

MRS. E. M. COWPER PREPARED FOR DEATH BY WRITING LETTERS.

INFLECTED WOUND THAT WAS FATAL

Tries to End Life in Same Manner as Friend in New York Hotel—Found by Recipients of Notes With Revolver in Hand.

New York, Nov. 28.—Using a pillow to muffle the report of a revolver, Mrs. Eleanor Merton Cowper, a talented playwright and actress, shot herself in the right temple yesterday in an apartment at the St. Regis hotel. The explosion of the cartridge was not heard, but Mrs. Cowper was rendered unconscious and is slowly dying.

Before making the attempt at self-destruction Mrs. Cowper had written a number of letters, one to her lawyer, another to the coroner, a third to an undertaker and a fourth to John Hood, a friend. In the letters she apprised these four persons of her intention to commit suicide.

At about the moment Mrs. Cowper pressed her finger to the trigger the letter addressed to John Hood was being delivered. Mr. Hood glanced through the first few lines, grabbed his coat and hat and ran to the St. Regis hotel.

The clerk obtained a pass key and hurried to the room of Mrs. Cowper, accompanied by Mr. Hood and a maid. They found Mrs. Cowper lying in bed, with the pillow still over her head and the revolver clutched in her hand. The bed clothing was stained crimson.

Investigation showed that Mrs. Cowper had made careful preparations to end her life. In addition to writing a letter to her lawyer, County Judge H. B. Joyce, of Middletown, N. Y., to take charge of her body, Mrs. Cowper had ordered an undertaker to prepare it for burial, and she had painstakingly written a brief autobiography.

The sketch stated that she was born in England, and that she came to this country at the age of 3 months. Her maiden name was Eleanor Merton. Her stage career began in Boston in a production called "Youth." Mrs. Cowper gave a list of the various productions she appeared in. She wrote four plays which were produced on Broadway. They were "Dairy Farm," "In Love," "A Broadway Favorite" and "A Last Rehearsal."

Mrs. Cowper did not give the date of her marriage, referring briefly to the fact that her husband, Archibald Cowper, was an actor, and that he died three years ago. Practically her only home life, she wrote, was when she lived "on the farm of James H. Wallick, at Middletown, N. Y. Mr. Wallick, who was 66 years old, collaborated with her in a number of the plays she wrote.

Last April Mr. Wallick committed suicide, and his tragic death seemed to have made a deep impression on Mrs. Cowper. He shot himself in the right temple. Mrs. Cowper tried to kill herself in identically the same manner yesterday.

The police endeavored to get into telephone communication with Judge Royce, of Middletown, and learned that he was on his way to New York, having received a letter from Mrs. Cowper, saying she intended to kill herself. He arrived at the hotel to find the police in charge of the dying woman.

In the letter she wrote to Judge Royce she asked him to notify her parents in New Hampshire of her death and to take charge of her body. She asked that her body be cremated. The police said that Mrs. Cowper was a prisoner, but she was not removed from her apartments at the hotel, as the doctors said that she had small chance to live, and to take her to a hospital probably would hasten the end.

Mrs. Cowper's husband, Theodore Archibald Cowper, died in the state hospital at Middletown eighteen months ago. Her attorneys say she had a good income from royalties on plays she has written.

MORE ELECTION ERRORS

SWANGER HAS ADDED 30 VOTES TO THE PLURALITY OF JUDGE GRAVES.

HOW WILL IT AFFECT MR. PAINTER

The Question of Who Was Elected Lieutenant Governor Will Have to Be Settled by the General Assembly.

Jefferson City, Nov. 28.—Though he has not yet received the opinion of the attorney general, which he sought in the matter, the secretary of state, John E. Swanger, authorized the announcement last night that the thirty votes from Dunklin county, reported on "amended returns," would be counted for Judge Walter W. Graves, elected to succeed himself as a member of the state supreme court. This will swell the plurality of Judge Graves to 3,019.

In the same "amended returns from Dunklin county are thirty votes for William R. Painter, the democrat, is candidate for lieutenant governor. Whether the counting of these votes for Judge Graves validates those for Painter is a matter not within the province of Secretary Swanger to determine. He passes only on the vote cast for the judgeship and for congress.

The general assembly itself, sitting in joint session, is the arbiter in the matter of disputed votes on state offices. Should the decision reached in the Graves matter, however, be considered as determining that Painter also is entitled to the thirty votes, it does not necessarily give him a sufficient number to make absolute his election to the lieutenant governorship, as there are other returns in a like condition which must go to Mr. Gmelich, the republican candidate. On these, however, only the assembly has power to rule.

It is known that had Secretary Swanger refused to count these votes for Judge Graves a mandamus would have been applied for, bringing the matter into the supreme court for adjudication. This is now obviated, and the uncertainty existing as to who will be declared the lieutenant governor will not be removed for several weeks, when the legislature will meet.

If, however, all amended returns are admitted, Gmelich will be declared elected. He has more votes to his credit on the original returns than were out counted for him than Painter has.

Farmer's Lot Should Be Happy.

If the farmer's returns are not great they possess a degree of certainty by which he is sure to keep the wolf from the door. The fallacy in all of this bawling the meager income from the fields and orchards of the land lies in the assumption that happiness depends upon goodly possessions. Diogenes, with his tub and shirt, asking Alexander to remove from his sunlight, incited the Macedonian conqueror to cry out: "If I were not Alexander I would be Diogenes." The seat of peace, of content, is in a man's own bosom and not in the mine, the warehouse, the granary or bank vault.—Solon O. Thatcher in Maxwell's Talisman.

Not Equipped.

"You ought to try to take life more philosophically," said the man who means well.

"I haven't the raw materials for philosophy," answered Farmer Corn-tassel.

"The raw materials?"

"Yep. Most of the philosophy I have seen needed a foundation of fried chicken and trimmings and an easy chair and a box of cigars and a number of other things I don't happen to have handy."

WOMAN EXPECTED TO MARRY HIM

Instead, Found That He Was Already Married—Police Intercept a Telegram Revealing the Identity of Girl.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 28.—"Max Canton, No. 240 East Fourteenth street, New York: Come at once. Ida is shot and is dying."

This telegram, being sent by Fannie Stein, of No. 510 Water street, was intercepted by the police last afternoon and the identity of Miss Ida Canton, who is dying of a gunshot wound, established.

Miss Canton last afternoon figured in one of the most sensational tragedies in the history of Pittsburg.

Coming from New York City some days since to marry James Frankel, a business man of Du Quenne, a few miles from here, she was told he was already married. She sent for him and as he was leaving her yesterday she begged that he kill her and then himself.

Frankel shot her once and then shot himself twice.

Ida Canton, who is about 26 years old, is the sister of Max Canton, to whom the police permitted Miss Stein's message to go, and was never in Pittsburg until a few days since.

Frankel, who is a business man, had met the young woman in New York many times, and, it is said, promised to marry her.

She came on quietly to surprise him and he married Thanksgiving day, but she was told that Frankel already had one wife and two children.

She then went to Mrs. Stein's home and sent word to Frankel to come to her. He came late last afternoon, when a woman lodger heard her say to him:

"Then you won't do it? So you are a coward!"

Then was a silence of perhaps half a minute, when a shot was heard, and a second shot followed.

The persons in the house rushed into the room to find Ida Canton spinning round and round in the middle of the floor, holding her side, while Frankel was half lying on the lounge with blood pouring from a wound in his head.

Miss Canton fell in a heap and Frankel, rising to his feet, placed the gun to his head once more and discharged it, falling over the body of Miss Canton.

One of the shots glanced from the skull of Frankel, but it is feared the other will prove fatal. The condition of Miss Canton is more serious.

UNITED AFTER 40 YEARS

JOHN E. DEERING FINDS HIS LONG LOST BROTHER AND SISTER.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY BRINGS REUNION

Separated in Childhood, They Never Saw Nor Heard From Each Other Until Last Week—A Lapse of Forty-Two Years.

Separated in childhood, without having seen or heard of each other in over forty years, John E. Deering, a cabinet maker at the M., K. & T. shops, has been reunited with his sister and brother. The reunion occurred at his sister's home in Morgan county, near Glenstead, last week.

The Deerings, in childhood, lived near what is now Lookout, in the northeastern part of Pettis county, during the Civil war. Elizabeth, aged 12; William, aged 10, and John E., aged 6, were left orphans while the war was in progress, an were separated by being taken in by acquaintances.

Days, months and years passed without them hearing of or seeing each other. Time took them further apart until each, after vain efforts to locate the others, gave up in despair and all believed the others were dead, and that further search was useless.

About four months ago, J. E. Deering, while partaking of a dish of chili at a local parlor, was approached by a lady who mistook him for his brother, William. A conversation followed and it was from this woman that the first news of Mr. Deering's brother came, and he immediately left for Talequah, Okla., where the woman said William was living. The information proved correct and John and William Deering met and greeted each other for the first time in forty-one years. An extended visit was made in Oklahoma, when one day a man giving his name as Stevens drove up to William Deering's home and recognized him as being a Deering, and asked him questions concerning his past life. It was soon learned that this man Stevens had known the Deerings years ago in Missouri, and it was from the information gotten from him that the two brothers determined to find the sister, feeling certain that from what Stevens had told them she was living somewhere in Missouri. They came to Sedalia, went to the neighborhood of their childhood, but inquiry failed to give them any clew whatever and they moved on to Cooper county. They went then to Benton county, following a slender clew, and after a long search turned their attention to a slight trace of the woman in Morgan county. They stopped at a farm house near Glenstead for the night on Sunday last, and after an introduction found that they were at the home of a Mr. Milburn, who proved to be the father of F. Milburn, of the grocery firm of Gelken & Milburn, on East Saline street, this city. The Deerings stated their mission and a son-in-law of Mr. Milburn, recalling a conversation held with a neighbor during which the ancestry of a family by the name of Hayes had been mentioned, he called the neighbor over the telephone, and the Hayes woman turned out to be the long lost sister.

A reunion of the brothers and sister occurred the following day, Monday, Nov. 23. It had been just forty-two years since the brothers had seen their sister, whose name now is Mrs. James Hayes, and who is the mother of five daughters and two sons. She is the wife of a substantial farmer.

A reunion of the Deering and Hayes families will be held in Sedalia Christmas.

Suffragette—Fines and penalties were imposed on bachelors in Greece and Rome. At certain festivals in Sparta it was the custom for women to drag old bachelors around the altar. ## A HOME-WRECKER KILLED

BONIFACE BURSTS OPEN DOOR OF GUEST'S ROOM AND FINDS WIFE.

CAUSED A SENSATION IN INDIANA

Found Wife in a Compromising Position and Shot Her Paramour Dead—Unfaithful Woman Is Also in Jail.

Worthington, Ind., Nov. 23.—Richard Dwyer was shot and instantly killed by A. T. Gude, who found the man, it is alleged, in bed with Mrs. Gude at Swartz City Thursday night. Gude is proprietor of Hunt's Tavern, at Swartz City. For several months Dwyer had been boarding at the tavern and an intimacy had been discovered between him and the landlady's wife which led to a separation. Gude had gone to his farm near Marco, but Thursday night unexpectedly returned home armed with a shotgun and a revolver.

Quietly ascending the stairs, he turned on the light and burst open the door of Dwyer's room, where, he declares, he found the pair in bed together.

He first fired the shotgun, slightly wounding Dwyer, who then sprang out of bed, whereupon Gude shot him in the temple. Dwyer fell back upon the bed across the form of Mrs. Gude. Descending to the lobby Gude smoked complacently and told inquiring friends that he never felt better in his life. A moment later he got into his carriage and started for Lyons. About midnight the horse arrived at a livery stable without a driver, Gude having mysteriously disappeared.

Mrs. Gude concealed herself about the hotel for a time, but later went to Marco, where she was arrested Friday.

Friday night Gude surrendered to the sheriff and is a prisoner in the county jail at Bloomfield. Mrs. Gude is also a prisoner in the same place.

Much sympathy is felt for Gude. Dwyer was foreman of a crew of men putting in an interlocking switch tower at the junction of the Indianapolis Southern and Vandavia railroads.

ENFORCE THE "LID" LAW

PREACHER, BACKED BY CHURCH OFFICERS, PETITIONS GOVERNOR HADLEY.

WAS ONCE A RESIDENT OF SEDALIA

Rev. J. B. Toomay Advocates Appointment of Excise Commissioner to Follow in the Footsteps of Mulvihill in St. Louis.

The Rev. J. B. Toomay, formerly pastor of the Second Congregational church of Sedalia, was written of as follows in the St. Louis Republic of Saturday:

Officers of the Fountain Park Congregational church, headed by their pastor, the Rev. Mr. John B. Toomay, have petitioned Governor-elect Hadley to appoint an excise commissioner for St. Louis to succeed Excise Commissioner Mulvihill, who will keep the lid on the Sunday saloons.

The petition was drawn up and signed by the churchmen yesterday. It will be forwarded to Mr. Hadley at Jefferson City today.

"Personally, I believe Mr. Mulvihill has proved himself a star in his performance of duty," said the Rev. Mr. Toomay last night.

"We want a man who will fearlessly follow in his footsteps and will do justice to both the brewers and the temperance people of St. Louis. We have confidence in Mr. Hadley on account of his record, but we believe nothing will be lost by telling him how we feel on the Sunday saloon closing.

The petition which will be sent to Mr. Hadley felicitates him on his past stand for the enforcement of laws and suggests that a man should be appointed to the office of excise commissioner of St. Louis whose very name is a guarantee of a square deal and equal justice to all."

The petitioners declare they have no candidate for the office; that they do not propose to tell Mr. Hadley who he shall appoint, but that they take this means of expressing their favor of a continuance of law enforcement.

The action of the Fountain Park Congregational church officials was suggested by the receipt of a circular letter from the Rev. E. J. Moore, state superintendent of the Antislavery league, asking the ministers of St. Louis to urge the members of their congregations to write Governor-elect Hadley on the lid-law subject.

The Rev. Mr. Toomay is chairman of the Ministerial Alliance. He said last night he did not know what action the alliance would take at its meeting Monday on the Antislavery league's circular.

BAD OUTLOOK FOR THE BREWERS

Legislature Will Pass Resolutions This Time, Says Atchison County Man, or the Initiative Will Be Invoked.

Jefferson City, Nov. 28.—Senator J. W. Peck, of Atchison county, announced here today that he would introduce a prohibition resolution in the senate early in the session.

"It will be adopted this time," he said. "There is no use to try to fight this question off any longer in Missouri. The people want to vote on the question of constitutional prohibition, and they will not be satisfied until this privilege is granted them. If the legislature persists in refusing to submit such an amendment to a popular vote there is still another way of reaching the desired end through the initiative and referendum."

"It would be well enough for those who are opposing submission at the hands of the legislature to remember that the constitution of this state was so changed by the adoption Nov. 3 of the initiative and referendum amendment that the people henceforth will have means at their command of forcing issues when public sentiment indorses the same, regardless of the action or non-action of the legislature."

"I believe, however, that a prohibition amendment will be submitted at the approaching session of the legislature. I know of no reason why it should not be submitted and many reasons why it should be, the chief one of the latter being that there is an abundance of evidence that the people want to vote on this proposition, and if the legislature does not give them this permission they will take the same through the initiative and referendum amendment just adopted."

"I was re-elected," continued Senator Peck, "by just twelve plurality in a district that is usually democratic. I feel that my course in seeking to submit a prohibition amendment at the last session of the legislature has been indorsed."

"At all events, I will introduce a resolution of this character early in the session next January, and I shall be very much surprised if it is not adopted."

Ladies to Give a Bazaar.

The Episcopal church ladies will hold a bazaar December 3rd and 4th. The location cannot be announced at this time. A feature of the bazaar will be a contest to guess the name of a doll which will be present and which now is exhibited in the large show window of the Arlington pharmacy.

The plan is to give one guess with every 25c purchase, and if there are any who want to make more guesses than their purchases entitle them to, a fee of 5c will be asked.

Announcement of details will be made in a later issue of this paper, but it can be stated at this time that the ladies are working and some very exceptional values are promised for the sale.

Clothes Brushes and Hair Brushes are being sold at 50c on the dollar at the Closing Out Sale Red Cross Pharmacy.

At the Lyric This Week.

The Lyric theatre, under the new management of R. S. Barker, offers this week a very interesting program, featuring "The Girl I Left Behind Me." Other pictures: "The Cock and the Web," "The Criminal's Daughter," "Life on the Rail" and a comedy entitled "The Ticklish Man," with illustrated songs.

SHOT BROTHER AND MOTHER

William Kallebrun, of Jersey City, Had Been Refused Money.

New York, Nov. 28.—With aim so deadly that all five shots he fired took effect, William Kallebrun, of Jersey City, shot and killed his brother, Leo, and then his aged mother, Mrs. Victoria Kallebrun, last night. Three bullets were fired into the body of the murderer's brother and two into his mother's body.

The tragedy took place in the apartments of Mrs. Kallebrun in this city. Kallebrun had come from Jersey City with a friend, Albert Trogunwykes, to secure money from his brother, Leo. The shooting followed when Leo would not give him the money.

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 26.

The business man that goes in a saloon once or twice a day is of greater harm to young men than the old lawn mower at roustabout who gets drunk and down in the gutter. No young men is going to look at the finished product of the saloon and want to imitate HIM, but he DOES the business man.

A $4,000 FIRE FRIDAY NIGHT

The Williamson Flour and Feed Store Was Gutted.

Fire of unknown origin broke out in the building at 206 West Main street, occupied by the H. D. Williamson Grain, Hay and Mill Feed company, about 9:45 o'clock Friday night, and before the blaze had been extinguished the greater portion of the contents of the building had been destroyed and a portion of the building ruined.

Mr. Williamson estimated his loss at between $2700 and $3500. He carried $3200 insurance on the contents, while it is not known what insurance was carried on the building, which is owned by Smith Risser, of Beaman. The building was damaged to the extent of $300.

The blaze evidently originated in the rear of the store, although the only fire in the store room at the time was in a stove in the front portion of the place.

Mr. Williamson stated Saturday he would reopen for business as soon as the building is repaired.

After the firemen had completed the task of extinguishing the blaze they were kindly remembered by Sheriff-elect M. T. Henderson, who treated the fire fighters to lunch and cigars.

The art display was opened Friday at West's Book Shop. Words of appreciation were heard on every hand and the efforts of Mr. West have resulted in an unequalled display. The visitor is shown down the north aisle and the eye is greeted by a magnificent Multiplex display rack. Also there are on exhibition costly and beautiful works of the patters art. From the north aisle the visitor is shown into the studio of Mrs. West. It is needless to describe the beautiful works of art contained therein. Along the south aisle are many new books. The store is decorated in ferns and artificial Japanese cherry blossoms.

THE TEACHERS DANCED

School Board Demands the Resignation of Five Pedagogues.

Enid, Ok., Nov. 28.—The resignations of five teachers in the Enid public schools were requested by the school board yesterday because the teachers attended and participated in the Elks Thanksgiving ball last night. Two weeks ago the school board adopted a rule preventing teachers from dancing. The board's action incensed several of the pedagogues, who defy the authorities to remove them. They rely on their yearly contracts. They assert that they will not be ousted.

Never Wash Clothes

Don't spend your time over a hot, steaming tub—get away from work, at least during the Summer. Let others do your washing for you—others who are willing to do the work for a trifling sum, and do it as well as you yourself could—in half the time and with absolutely no exertion on your part.

If you want to try it once—want to join the band of contented, happy and fortunate women who have risen above the tyranny of the tub, call 126 phone or give your bundle to our wagon as it passes your door. You'll be more than pleased, we will guarantee, with the result.

TWELVE THOUSAND PAID

TO SEE THE MISSOURI-KANSAS FOOTBALL GAME PLAYED IN KANSAS CITY.

TOTAL RECEIPTS WERE $18,237.50

Tebeau Received $3,191 and the Two Universities Divided $15,046—Much More Money Than at St. Joseph.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 28.—When the Missouri and Kansas athletic managers finished counting the tickets taken in at the annual football game at Association park Thursday afternoon, yesterday afternoon, they announced that the receipts totaled $18,237.50.

Of this amount $3,191 goes to George Tebeau, owner of Association park. Under the contract with the universities Tebeau is to receive 17½ per cent of the gross receipts for five years. The two universities divided $15,046. The paid attendance was about 12,000.

The largest amount ever received before by the universities for the annual game was $9,960 in 1905.

In 1906 the weather was bad and the box office takings fell short of $7,000. The game was played in St. Joseph last year and the total receipts were $8,000.

HUMILIATED AT "LITERARY"

Arrested on an Old Charge While With His Sweetheart.

Joplin, Mo., Nov. 28.—To have the prettiest girl at "literary" and then to be arrested on an old charge sworn out nearly a year ago, and compelled to get another man to take the girl home, while he walked away between two officers with handcuffs on his wrists, was the fate of Claude Stephens, of Galena, last night.

Stephens was arrested by Constable Drane, of Joplin, and Constable Leggett, of Galena. He is charged with forging a check upon J. S. Barnes, of Galena, and a warrant for his arrest was sworn out Dec. 13.

The "literary" was held in a little school house with only one door. Drane entered and mingled with the crowd. He saw Stephens and called him out. As soon as Stephens was outside he was arrested and a pair of handcuffs were snapped upon his wrists.

As the officers started to lead him away he pleaded to be allowed to see the girl and bid her good by. His appeals finally won over Drane, who unlocked the handcuffs and stood in the doorway while he bade the girl good by and arranged for another man to take her home in his buggy.

WIFE SLAYER PUT TO DEATH

Love for Another Woman Caused a New Yorker's Crime.

Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 28.—William Robert Brasch, the Rochester wife murderer, in whose case Governor Hughes refused to interfere, was put to death in the electric chair in Auburn prison early today.

The crime for which Brasch died was the murder of his wife, Roxanna, whom he pushed into the Erie canal at Rochester on the night of June 15, 1906. He killed her that he might marry May Gilmore, of Defiance, O.

Unreasonable Hubby.

In the olden times a woman in the north of Scotland went to visit her husband, who was condemned to be hanged on the following day. The doomed man began to give his instructions to his wife preparatory to bidding her farewell, when she broke in upon the conversation and exclaimed: "By the by, John, whaur will I plant the tatties this year?" The unfortunate man, indignant at the indifference of his wife, exclaimed, angrily: "What need I care whaur ye plant them? I'm not likely to need any o' them." "Hech," replied the woman, turning to the warden with a wag of her head, "our John's huffed because he's gaunt to be hanged the morn," and marched out of the cell.

REVIVAL CLOSING TODAY

A GREAT WORK HAS BEEN DONE AT BROADWAY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

"WAY OF THE CROSS LEADS HOME"

This Was Inspiring Song That Opened the Services Last Night—Farewell Meeting to Be Held This Evening.

"The Way of the Cross Leads Home" was the inspiring song that opened the meeting last night at the Broadway Presbyterian church. There was an interested audience that gave ready response to Evangelist Hamilton's subject, "Lo, I Must Die," from the text, "I did but taste a little honey with the rod that was in my hands, and lo, I must die." The evangelist said in part:

"Honey is sweet and so is sin. Every sinner knows sin is sweet. There is many a man and many a woman that has gone out from a Christian home against the wishes of their parents, and have been a disgrace to that home. There's many a child of God that has wandered away from his Father's home and become soaked in sin, and has made himself a disgrace to his Heavenly Father.

On one side you have put Christ and heaven and peace of soul. On the other side, sin and hell and misery of conscience. Some seem to say by their actions that, 'You can take heaven and Christ and peace of soul. I can stand it in hell.'

"Then sin is small in the eyes of the sinner. He thinks it is only just for this time, or that it is of no great consequence. But sin in man is no imagination. It is real in God's sight. God gave us a hatred for sin, for mock piety. We may call sin a small thing, but God hath said, 'The soul that sinneth, it shall die.'

Then, again, sin is fatal. 'The wages of sin is death.' We do not have to prove this, we know it is so. We can laugh at the storm, but no man dare mock in his sin before God. The very thought of meeting face to face our Heavenly Father and Judge makes us shudder. The Divine Word says, 'He that believeth not is condemned already because he hath not believed on the Son of God, and the wrath of God abideth on him.'

"Then we have a joyous part of the text, the sinner spared. 'He that believeth on the Son is not condemned.' 'For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.' 'Cleanse Thou me from all unrighteousness; wash me and I shall be whiter than snow.'

"The father of a prisoner once obtained a large number of signers to a pardon for his son, and upon presenting the same to President Grant, the pardon was at once given the father for his son. The old man, rejoicing, carried it to the son and told him that he did not have to stay longer in prison, that he held in his hand the pardon from President Grant. The son said, 'No, I don't want to come out of prison; I have decided to stay right here. I don't want to be released.'

"The old father went away sorrowful. How many men today are doing just the same thing. God has provided a pardon for you to make you free to step out of sin into freedom, through Christ, and you say, 'No, I won't accept the pardon made for me; I have decided to stay in my bondage and prison. I don't want it! What more can he do? It remains for you to accept or regret.'

"Lo, I must die, because of sin.' But it shall not be so if you come, saying, 'I am a dying sinner, but I accept Thy pardon.'

Mr. Henderson, the singer, and Wm. S. Dixon sang a duet, "I'm Happy in Him."

Today is the closing day of the revival. There will be services at the regular church hours. This morning Evangelist Hamilton will talk on "Things That Accompany Salvation." The subject tonight will be "Heaven."

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson will sing by request tonight a duet that has proven a winner, "Where Jesus Is Is Heaven to Me."

Today promises to be a great day. If you have not heard the evangelists you should not miss them today, this last day. If you have not had the privilege of hearing them you will need no invitation to come today. At any rate get the blessing that awaits today.

AMUSEMENTS

SEDALIA THEATER.

"The Cow-Puncher" Tonight.
One of the plays of the season is that of "The Cow-Puncher" by Hal Reid, which is to be seen at the Sedalia theatre tonight.
He depicts his characters with an intensity and realism absolutely startling, and throws strong light on the character of the cowboy whose heart is as big and broad as the vast plains on which he lives. The farewell scene between Tom Lawson and his brother Billy, when the former is compelled to pass sentence of death on the latter for his alleged participation in the depredations committed by a band of cattle rustlers, is convincingly pathetic and powerful.

Tim Murphy in "Cupid and the Dollar."
Mr. Tim Murphy is to present his latest success, "Cupid and the Dollar," at the Sedalia theatre on Monday night. To quote the old printer's sign, the granddaddy of phonetic spelling, "Nuf Ced," Mr. Murphy is sure of a crowded house as usual. And "there's a reason." The principal one is his own merry personality so happily projected into the roles he creates and this one fortified by his fashion of supporting himself by superior artists, furnishing handsome productions, and always giving comedies which are as essentially self-respecting as they are highly diverting and amusing.

In "Cupid and the Dollar" he has a strong role fortified by an intensely interesting story and is supported by a long cast of superior players. It would be a poor fool who would go through life on laughter only and it's a poor role that hasn't something solid behind it. This comedian always sees to this. His first effort is to depict the character, then grip the audience and while he holds them in the vice of his art move them at his magic will to tears or laughter. Mr. Murphy's leading woman is again Miss Dorothy Sherrard.

Lena Rivers Coming.

The play, "Lena Rivers," which comes to the Sedalia theatre Saturday, matinee and night, is a dramatization by Bertha Poynter, of the novel by that name, written in 1859 by Mrs. Mary J. Holmes.

One of the large commentaries in speaking of Mrs. Holmes says: "Mrs. Holmes is probably the greatest moral writer that we have." And this very fact of her moral writings is largely accountable for her large following. Over ten million copies of her books have been sold. "Lena Rivers" leading the list in point of popularity.

"Lena Rivers" is a beautiful story of the south, its life and manners, interspersed with exceedingly funny comedy and witty epigrams that relieve the tender emotional scenes. The play has embodied all the salient points of the book.

Williams & Walker.

Williams and Walker, those real king pins of song and laughter, who open at the Sedalia theatre Tuesday, Dec. 8th, in their latest musical success entitled "Bandanna Land," write all their songs practically and originate all the "business" of their specialties; and though they are universally copied, Williams and Walker are so infinitely funny in their performance, that in spite of the many clever imitators, the popularity of these original entertainers continues to grow, for there is that elusive "something" about their work no one can take from them.

Williams and Walker's latest effort, "Bandanna Land," is said to stand out as their greatest triumph, as was proven by their recent four months' "run" in the Majestic theatre, New York City. It is replete with inspiring music, good, wholesome, clean comedy, gorgeous costumes and magnificent scenery.

Corinne in "Lola from Berlin."

"Lola from Berlin," the latest musical work from the pens of John J. McNally, Wm. Jerome and Jean Schwartz, will come to the Sedalia theatre soon with Corinne in the leading role. "Lola from Berlin" received introductions in the Liberty theatre, New York City, last season under the management of Klaw and Erlanger, where it won instant approval. An exceptionally strong cast has been engaged to support Corinne, including Mark Sullivan, Hazel Carlton, Franklin Vail, Henry Carl Lewis, Lillian Wilson, Frank Woods, Pearl Revare, Freddie Stott, Bunnet Ingeberg and a large ensemble force. Watch for the date.

POSES AS "TURTLE KING"

"BILL" SETTLES, WHO FOR LONG TIME WAS A RESIDENT OF SEDALIA.

IS NOW LIVING IN KANSAS CITY, MO.

Catches 'Em Alive, Bill Does, and Disposes of Them to the High-Livers—Still Has His Push Cart in Hand.

"Bill" Settles, for many years a resident of Sedalia, at which time he was a member of the Salvation Army and noted for his many oddities, was written of as follows in the Post-Dispatch:

In all the rivers and creeks of Missouri turtles are abundant—in all except one, the Blue river, near Kansas City. There the turtle is rapidly becoming extinct and all because "Bill" Settles, who says he is the champion "barehanded" turtle chaser of the world.

Just where "Bill" Settles first came from even he himself doesn't seem to know. But about two years ago he came to the Blue river, built himself a small ramshackle cabin and has lived there ever since, earning his livelihood by selling the turtles he catches out of the river, by diving. Settles' method of turtle hunting is easy for him. Clad in a rough shirt and trousers, with his shoes split from the mouth to the toe to let the water out of them, Bill roams the banks of the stream until he sees his victim on a log near the bank. The game in sight, Bill creeps up as close as possible. As soon as the turtle sees him and begins to slip into the water Bill dives after it. Tail, flippers or head, it will make no difference to the turtle hunter; he flounders around in the water until he grabs some part of the turtle's anatomy, and then the fight begins.

The turtle wriggles, scratches and squirms. Bill puffs and treads water. The turtle is patient. So is Bill. The turtle finally becomes exasperated—that's exactly the term that Bill uses—and sticks his head out from under his shell to bite the intruder. And that's what the intruder has been waiting for. With his right hand, upon which he wears a husking glove, Bill grabs the turtle by the head and starts for the shore. It's all over then. The turtle can't pull his head back under his shell and he can't bite. The nail-bound glove interferes with all of those things, and the rest of the turtle's life consists in being thrown into a gunny sack, hauled to the city in a small push cart with a dozen other turtles and then sold to restaurants and private families. The price of turtles ranges from 50 cents up, and on a good day Settles often makes as much as $10, of which he saves about $9.50 in order that he may have a sinking fund for winter.

Bill Settles and his push cart are familiar on the down town streets of Kansas City. Always he has a following of small boys and some men, and always on the street corners he may be counted upon for lectures on the game turtle.

"Don't they ever bite you?" someone asked, as Settles pushed his cart through the streets the other day. The answer of Settles was merely a look of contempt.

"Who, me?" he finally asked. "Do I look like I'm makin' bait outen myself for them varmints? How kin they bite? Don't I grab 'em by the neck?"

"Yes, but what's the turtle doing before you grab him?"

"Tryin' to get away, that's what. Just like a snake; run liek a house afire until you get 'em cornered. Then they'll scrap. Say, I sure got a mighty fine one this morning. Biggest I ever caught. Looky! Worth $3 if he's worth a cent."

Settles pointed to a gunny sack containing a turtle almost as big as a bushel basket.

"Had an awful scrap with him," Settles said. "Had to call for help to get him outen the water. But Lordy! he's worth it."

The chief part of Settles' trade lies in the more fashionable part of town, among the "high-livers." They are the ones who have learned to eat the fresh water turtle and who say it is really delicious. And they, too, are the ones who are willing to pay the price Settles asks for his turtles.

Madame Kalich as "Cora."

The appearance of Madame Kalich as "Cora" at Wood's theater Saturday night was an artistic success, fully on a par with that achieved by her in "Marta of the Lowlands" last season. While the play itself was not perhaps as deeply and intensely interesting holding as is "Marta," yet it gave great opportunity for the display of the great actress' versatility and was a revelation to the theater goers of Sedalia. The supporting company was exceptionally good. A packed house greeted the attraction.

GOOD PRIEST IS AT REST

30,000 PEOPLE IN PENNSYLVANIA COAL FIELDS PAY TRIBUTE TO HIS MEMORY.

BUSINESS HALTS, SCHOOLS CLOSE

During Funeral Services for Father H. F. O'Reilly, of Shenandoah—Wielded Influence for Peace During Crusade.

Shenandoah, Pa., Nov. 28.—A most remarkable tribute to a priest was paid yesterday at the funeral of the Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, rector of the Roman Catholic Church of the Annunciation in this place for forty years.

Twenty-five companies employing more than 16,000 men and boys in the Shenandoah and Mahanoy valley were shut down to enable the workers to pay their respects to the dead priest.

The public schools here, at Mahanoy City and other surrounding communities were closed and all business in Shenandoah was suspended.

More than two hundred priests attended the funeral service. Bishop Prendergast, of Philadelphia, officiated.

Following the services the body was taken to Philadelphia, accompanied by 1,500 mourners, on special train over the Pennsylvania railroad and was interred in Holy Cross cemetery on the outskirts of the city. The funeral train was made up of thirty day coaches and was run in sections.

Fully 30,000 persons paid tribute to his memory. So immense was the crowd in town that a detail of state police was called upon to assist the local authorities to handle the people.

Father O'Reilly was one of the best known and most popular priests in the diocese. During the Molly Maguire crusade and in numerous coal strikes he wielded a great influence in behalf of peace and law and order.

BREWER GOT HIS MAN

Worked Up a Case of Stock Poisoning, Fence Cutting, Etc.

John Brewer, a Missouri Pacific secret service detective, returned Friday from Charlton county, where for several weeks past he has been engaged in secret work and succeeded in landing the desired man.

Some time ago a farmer named Edward Grotjan, of Charlton county, had several head of stock poisoned mysteriously. In addition, wire fences surrounding his pastures were cut and maliciously destroyed.

Brewer, in company with another sleuth, worked on the case for several weeks, during which time the former disguised himself as a picture engager, boarding at the home of the man who was suspected.

During his stay at the residence he gathered the desired information, and at the right time arrested William Kahled, Jr., living six miles from Keytesville, who broke down and confessed his guilt, which led to his being sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

MARRIED AT HOTEL HUCKINS

Mr. H. Roger Starke and Miss Gladys Lee Huff Saturday.

H. Roger Starke, a prosperous young farmer and stockman of Otterville, and Miss Gladys Lee Huff, a popular young school teacher of Tipton, were united in marriage in the parlors of the Huckins hotel in this city at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Rev. Dr. Harrell, pastor of the Otterville Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony in the presence of Miss Jennie Huff, of Tipton, a sister of the bride, and Miss Nell Wilkerson and Henry Gunn, of Otterville.

The bridal couple, accompanied by their attendants, left at 4:30 o'clock for Otterville to make their future home.

Mr. Starke is a worthy young man, and is a son of Judge J. D. Starke, ex-warden of the Missouri state penitentiary.

His bride is a daughter of J. T. Huff, of Tipton, and is a pretty and educated young lady.

LOST $3,000 IN A DEAL

Confidence Men Worked a New Game on an Indiana Farmer.

Indianapolis, Nov. 28.—William B. Cunningham, 83 years old, was swindled out of $3,000 here yesterday by confidence men. Cunningham is a retired farmer. The loss came through a newly found "friend," who scraped his acquaintance in front of the Cunningham home. The man took Cunningham to a room at 149 West Vermont street and convinced him that he, the "friend," had drawn a $3,000 prize from Andrew Carnegie.

The "friend's" confederate conducted the "drawing." He said Mr. Carnegie required all persons who received his money to put up a like amount. Cunningham was appealed to by the "friends" to furnish the $3,000.

He was to share in the prize. He obtained the money at the Indiana National bank, and the "prize," with the equivalent was placed in a tin cash box. The "friends" having business to transact then gave Cunningham the box. He opened it later and discovered his loss.

FLO IRWIN IS RESTRAINED

"Mrs. Peckham's Carouse" Can't Be Presented Just Now.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Judge Hazel, sitting in the United States court here yesterday, issued a temporary injunction restraining Flo Irwin from appearing in or using "Mrs. Peckham's Carouse," a vaudeville sketch whose ownership is the basis of the litigation.

Both Flo and May Irwin say they hold exclusive title to the piece, and until this dispute is finally settled, the injunction will remain in life. No date has been set for the trial as yet.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

THE ORDER OF RAILWAY TELE-
 GRAPHERS IS FIGHTING
 TELEPHONES.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

The Railway Telegraphers' order is greatly alarmed over the substitution by the railroads of telephone for the telegraph in the dispatching and blocking of trains.

An effort is being made by the union in various states to arouse the state legislatures to action, upon the ground that the new method is unsafe and a menace not only to the lives of employees using the phones, but also to the traveling public.

One of the methods adopted to arouse public sentiment against the use of the telephone is by sending alarming articles to the newspapers, depicting the things which, from the telegrapher's standpoint, are going to follow the relegation of the telegraph.

Depots Must Have Telephones.
 The Oklahoma state corporation commission, in an order against the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad company, held that a telephone was a necessary part of the equipment of a railroad passenger depot in towns where there was a telephone exchange.

It ruled the railroad company must maintain telephones for the benefit of its patrons.

Explosion Victim May Recover.
 Brakeman E. P. Roe, who was injured in the explosion at Idembro, Kas., where Engineer Melville and Fireman Wulf were killed Friday morning, is said to be improving and may recover.

Roe suffered from the concussion caused by the explosion of the boiler and was severely burned.

Dead Engineer's Daughters.
 Two daughters of Engineer Frank Melville, who was killed by the explosion of an M. K. & T. engine six miles south of Parsons, Kas., Friday, were the guests of friends in Sedalia when the accident occurred, and departed Friday night for their home in Parsons to attend their father's funeral.

New Rates Effective Monday.
 A new schedule, involving a change in the division of earnings between transcontinental railroads and steamship companies on freight from the Orient, becomes effective Monday.

Under the new rates, the roads will earn, in some instances, only about 75 per cent as much as heretofore.

Machinist Found a Watch.
 Theodore Kribs, a Missouri Pacific machinist, recently from Moberly, found a ladies' gold watch at the corner of Fourth street and Ohio avenue Thursday evening and after inquiring as to the ownership returned it to Watt Williams whose sister had lost the timepiece.

Special Car on Freight Train.
 Bertha Kalich, the noted Russian actress, who portrayed the leading character in "Cora" at Wood's opera house Saturday night, arrived in Sedalia from Joplin in a special car attached to an M. K. & T. freight train Saturday morning.

Missouri Pacific Is Fined.
 The Missouri Pacific railroad was fined $200 and the Frisco road $300 in the federal court at Topeka Friday for violating the 28-hour law in regard to hauling stock.

Hospital Arrivals.

Following are new arrivals at the Katy hospital:

James Clark, yardman, Oklahoma City, Okla.

W. B. Lorraine, trucker, Denison, Texas.

J. M. Cox, engineer, Denison, Texas.

Automatic Couplers.

Eighty-four patients were registered at the Katy hospital Saturday. James Cole, a Missouri Pacific car inspector, is ill with an attack of tonsillitis.

Will Baldwin, a Missouri Pacific brakeman, returned Saturday from Warrensburg.

D. Stoffel, assistant claim agent for the Katy, made a business visit at Clinton Saturday.

E. F. Leigh, a Missouri Pacific blacksmith, is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

"Jack" Donegan, a former Missouri Pacific car inspector, returned last night from Kansas City.

L. F. Bacon, traveling passenger agent for the Santa Fe railway, with headquarters at Kansas City, was a business visitor in the city Saturday.

George Britton, division lineman for the Missouri Pacific, and Lou Smasal made a business visit at points on the west end of the road Saturday.

J. W. Griffin, a Missouri Pacific conductor, and wife, returned last night from Kansas City, where they attended the funeral of the former's brother.

The M. K. & T. established another precedent yesterday by bringing train No. 2 to Sedalia on time. Norman McDonald pulled the throttle on the engine.

H. L. Turton, foreman of the Missouri Pacific shops, issued a bulletin Saturday, requesting that all work on locomotives be reported at both ends of the road.

A. J. Alexander, superintendent of the Missouri Pacific, and family, will move tomorrow from their home, 410

West Fourth street, to apartments at the Antlers hotel.

Walter Mann, chairman of the grievance committee of the B. of R. T. on the Missouri Pacific, came up from the state capital Saturday on brotherhood business.

Tuesday is housekeepers' day on the Missouri Pacific and the M. K. & T., and the following morning the latter road will operate three sections of south bound flyer No. 5.

Miss Laberta M. Smith, a trained nurse, and daughter of Mrs. Charles Smith, matron at the M. K. & T. station in this city, passed through here Saturday, en route from St. Joseph to points in Florida and Alabama.

AUSTRALIANS ARE AHEAD

In the International Tennis Championship They Lead by One Match.

Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 28.—Five thousand excited spectators crowded into the grounds today to witness the international tennis match, in which the Dwight F. Davis challenge cup was brought nearer Australia by a double team made up of Norman Brookes and A. F. Wilding. Their American opponents were F. B. Alexander and Beals C. Wright.

The first set was won by the Antipodeans, 6 to 4. They followed up this victory by capturing the second set, 6 to 2. Then the Americans rallied and captured the third set, 7 to 5, and the fourth set also was won by the Yankees, 6 to 1.

By this time the suspense was tense and both teams were on their best mettle. The deciding round was won by the Australians, 6 to 4.

The outcome of today's play places the score in matches two for the Australians and one for the American competitors.

There are to be five matches in all, to determine which country shall take the coveted trophy.

CARRIED ON COW-CATCHER

Flyer Hit Wagon and Team of Mules on Michigan Central.

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 28.—A flyer on the Michigan Central, due in Chicago at 5 p. m., today, while passing through Gary, at a speed of sixty miles an hour, struck a coal wagon driven by Charles Burk.

The wagon, team of mules and Burk were carried along on the pilot for four blocks before the flyer could be stopped.

Neither Burk, the mules nor the wagon was hurt. Burk drove the coal wagon off of the cowcatcher himself.

Agreed with the Lecturer.

During a lecture at one of the leading colleges on the subject of "Ventilation and Architecture," the temperature of the room rose to a very high pitch. "And now we will turn to Greece," said the lecturer. "So we will," said one of the audience, wiping his brow, "unless you open some of the windows."

IS WHAT BROUGHT BRANDENBURG, MAGAZINE WRITER, MUST FACE MONDAY.

ECONOMIC CLUB TO GIVE A DINNER

Charles W. Morse, Who Is Playing the Part of the Goat in "Frenzied Finance," to Have Another Hearing This Week.

(By Glenn Guernsey.)

New York, Nov. 28.—Some sensational developments are expected on Monday when Broughton Brandenburg, the magazine writer, will appear in court to answer to a charge of grand larceny in the second degree. Brandenburg's trouble is the result of his sale to the New York Times of an article purporting to have been written by the late Grover Cleveland. The publication of the letter, coming as it did during the campaign, created a sensation. Serious doubt was cast on its authenticity from the first, and several New York newspapers refused to buy it before it was accepted by the Times. Brandenburg has strenuously objected to going to trial on Monday, declaring that he is out of money and that he has not the means to make an adequate defense. He has entered a plea of not guilty, and will attempt to prove that the Cleveland article was what it purported to be. If he fails in his endeavor, he will at least be entitled to the belt as the champion news fakir of recent times.

Prosperity Dinner.

General prosperity is due to arrive in the metropolis on Monday night, and his coming will be celebrated by a "prosperity dinner" at the Hotel Astor, to be pulled off under the auspices of the Economic club. Over an elaborate menu, the diners will discuss the general outlook for business, while the orchestra will play. "What Are The Wild Prosperity Waves Saying?"

Our old friend, E. H. Harriman, railroad magnate and president of the Ananias club, is scheduled to talk about "The Outlook for the Railroads." Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia university, will give some inside information on "The Conditions Necessary to Prosperity," and Cyrus McCormick, of the alleged "harvester trust," will speak on "The Nation's Agricultural Interests." August Thomas, the playwright, is on the program for a conversation on "High Tariff Prosperity." And there are others. Meanwhile, the "bread line" is doing a rushing business.

Morse Case Hearing.

Charles W. Morse, who is playing the part of the goat in the drama of "Frenzied Finance," will have another hearing next week, argument

LEST WE FORGET

"I say, by the President's authority, that in penning these words, with the horror of President McKinley's murder fresh before him, he had Mr. Hearst specifically in his mind. And I say, by his authority, that what he thought of Mr. Hearst then he thinks of Mr. Hearst now."—Secretary Root in Hughes-Hearst gubernatorial fight of two years ago.

other hearing next week, argument on the writ of error having been set for Thursday, December 3. Counsel for the richest man in the Tombs prison will argue at length in an attempt to overturn the ruling of Judge Hough, who sentenced Morse to serve fifteen years in a federal prison for alleged bank irregularities. Friends of Morse continue to assert that his trouble was due to the machinations of powerful enemies in Wall street and that he has been "more sinned against than sinning." The jubilation that followed Morse's conviction has about died out and the public is beginning to entertain the theory that Morse is but a victim of men higher up on the financial ladder. In the minds of the unprejudiced observer there lurks little doubt that the ex-vice king is being offered up as a vicarious sacrifice for the sins of many financiers guilty of worse practices and more culpable juggling with other people's money.

Good Bye, Sandy Hook.

Sandy Hook lightship, that old and venerable friend of the mariner and of all who go down to the sea in ships, will shortly disappear and be known no more forever. Thus will vanish an institution which is perhaps the most famous of its kind in the annals of American navigation. The official passing of the old lightship is set for next Tuesday, and only the rippling waves will sing her requiem. The "Ambrose Channel lightship" will replace the Sandy Hook vessel. With the opening of the channel for which the new lightship is named, vessels will not pass within three miles of Sandy Hook, and soon the old route will be but a dim memory in the minds of ancient mariners. The lighthouse board has officially declared that navigators must use the new name for the new lightship, despite the protests of many sentimental persons to whom Sandy Hook is more than a name. The first Sandy Hook lightship to beckon a welcome to mariners was put in place more than half a century ago, but the present and last ship of the Sandy Hook station has been in comparison only sixteen years.

Save the Garden.

That New Yorkers are not utterly lacking in civic pride was conclusively proven when the proposition to sell Madison Square Garden was first broached. A veritable storm of protest swept over the town and thousands joined in the demand that the garden be saved from the ruthless and destroying hands of the Vandals of Business. It was a refreshing exhibition of a sentimentality such as few imagined could exist in the fevered heart and money-mad mind of belittling old Gotham. It remains to be observed whether this sentiment will take the concrete form of dollars and cents.

GRADUATE AT AGE OF 14

NORBERT WIENER, THE SON OF A PROFESSOR IN HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

LAD WAS BORN AT COLUMBIA, MO

Could Repeat Alphabet at the Age of Eleven Months, and When Only Three Years of Age Could Both Read and Write.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 28.—At Tufts college, in Massachusetts, a boy will graduate next June at the age of 14 and we will all have to take off our mortar-board caps to him. He is Norbert Wiener, the son of a Harvard professor. This remarkable boy was born in Columbia, Mo., Nov. 26, 1894. He could repeat the alphabet at the age of eleven months, could read and write at three years and at the age of eight he was fitted for college in mathematics, philosophy, modern languages and the sciences. It required less than three years of schooling after donning short trousers for him to prepare for college. Boys seldom do this in less than ten or eleven years; usually it requires an even dozen and often longer.

When Norbert Wiener entered Tufts in the autumn of 1906, he had gone further in chemistry and philosophy than the average senior. He was required to take several entrance examinations, mathematics among them, in which he was found to be far in advance of the freshman class. So, as a freshman, he did upper class work in the theory of equations and in determinants, while in philosophy it was found necessary to place him in a class by himself. He had read Spencer, Haeckel, Charles Darwin, Huxley and many others. Now he has read Locke, Hobbes and other English philosophers; he has translated Homer and several plays of Aeschylus, as well as a smaller amount of Latin.

In mathematics he has delved into the Galois theory of equations, and has completed differential and integral calculus. He will continue this branch this year and will study the philosophies of Leibnitz, Spinoza and Kant. In Greek he will read Herodotus and Sophocles; the rest of his time will be taken up by biology and organic chemistry. In June, 1909, he will have completed the regular four year course in three years, receiving the degree of bachelor of arts before he has reached the age of 15. But the work he has covered will equal the amount usually completed by the candidate for the degree of doctor of philosophy.

In the autumn following his graduation at Tufts college he will enter the Harvard graduate school, where he will elect work in higher mathematics, with a supplementary course in biology or chemistry. After receiving the doctor's degree at 17—an age when many students are not yet contemplating the entrance examinations—he will spend two or three years in Germany and France, devoting himself to philosophy and science. This, at an age when the average boy has still two years of work ahead of him for his bachelor's degree, young Wiener will be doing advanced scientific work among the gray-bearded savants of a German university.

Prof. Leo Weiner, of the department of Slavic languages at Harvard, is of Russian parentage; the boy's mother is a native of Missouri. The other children of the family do not differ from other boys and girls of their ages. Apart from the fact that his capacity for learning is phenomenal, Norbert Wiener is like other boys. His physical development is excellent; he is a good tennis player and an expert swimmer. He is a tall boy and a strict vegetarian. His head is normal in size, but his blazing black eyes are almost uncanny in their power. Personally he chooses mathematics as his favorite study. Philosophy he calls his "fairland."

DEEDS, NOT WORDS

Sedalia People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, for Sedalia kidney sufferers, have made their local reputation. Proof lies in the testimony of Sedalia people who have been cured to stay cured.

Mrs. Wm. Ricks, 605 W. Fifth St., Sedalia, Mo., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and can say that they did me a world of good. I had kidney trouble and suffered a great deal from pains and a weakness in my back and hips. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I have had no return of the trouble since." (Statement given in 1901.)

Time is the Test.

On Oct. 16, 1908, Mrs. Ricks said: "I still think highly of Doan's Pills as I have had no return of my former trouble in over seven years. I gladly re-endorse this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn, Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

GOOD, HONEST, SQUARE-DEAL

Medicines like those of Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, warrant their makers in printing their every ingredient, which they do, upon their outside wrappers, verifying the correctness of the same under oath. This open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves. Furthermore, it warrants physicians in prescribing them largely as they do in their worst cases.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Is a most potent alternative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach and bowels, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), liver, bowels (as mucous diarrhea), or other organs.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is advised for the cure of one class of diseases only—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities peculiar to women. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve.

For weak, worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulae of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American, medicinal, forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum. Don't do it.

WILL ERECT MONUMENT

TO THE MEMORY OF THE REV. SAM JONES, WHO DIED IN OKLAHOMA CITY, OK.

HOLD A MEMORIAL SERVICE TODAY

Said Rev. Jones Had Preached to More People Than Any Other Minister—Greatest Satirist Pulpit Ever Had.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Nov. 28.—“Sam Jones Memorial day” will be observed tomorrow by all the churches and young people's societies of the Methodist Episcopal church, South.

Each of the 9,000 Epworth Leagues embraced in that great body will do its part in raising the funds needed for the Sam Jones monument which is destined to stand before the new St. Luke's church in Oklahoma City.

It will be erected as a fitting tribute from the young people of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, to Sam P. Jones, the famous revivalist, to whose credit it is said that he had preached to more people than any other minister and that he was the greatest satirist the pulpit ever had.

The monument, which will cost about $10,000, will be surmounted by a life-size bronze statue of the evangelist. The base will be of Oklahoma red granite.

The supporting columns will be as pure white as it is possible to find stone, probably of marble. The solidity of the design may be judged by the fact that the weight of the granite cap alone is estimated at not less than twenty-five tons.

The movement to provide a suitable memorial to the Rev. Sam Jones originated in the Epworth League of St. Luke's church and was first given formal expression at the Epworth League conference of Oklahoma on July 14, at Sulphur.

Organization of the monument movement has been carried out by E. P. Guthrie, state president, and J. F. Moore, local president of the Epworth League. The Rev. Dr. H. M. DuBose, of Nashville, Tenn., is treasurer of the fund for the monument and will receive contributions from people interested.

NEW METHOD OF REDUCING FAT

A news item from Paris informs us that the American method of producing a slim, trim figure, is meeting with astonishing success. This system, which has made such a wonderful impression over there, must be the Marmola Prescription Tablet method of reducing fat. It is safe to say that we have nothing better for this purpose in this country. Anything that will reduce the excess flesh a pound a day without injury to the stomach, the causing of wrinkles, the help of exercising or dieting, or interference with one's meals is a mighty important and useful addition to civilization's necessities. Just such a catalogue of good results, however, follow the use of these pleasant, harmless and economical little fat reducers. We say economical, because Marmola Prescription Tablets (made in accordance with the famous prescription) can be obtained of any druggist or the makers, the Marmola Co., Detroit, Mich., for seventy-five cents the large case, which is a decidedly economical price considering the number of tablets each case contains.

MET AT THE COURT HOUSE

TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR CELEBRATING OUR 50TH ANNIVERSARY.

MAYOR BABCOCK MADE CHAIRMAN

Mr. J. W. Mellor Elected Secretary and Charles Hoffman Treasurer
—The Resolution That Was Adopted.

The mass meeting held at the court house Friday night under the auspices of the Business Men's association, to make the preliminary arrangements for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the city of Sedalia, was not as largely attended as it should have been.

Mayor Babcock called the meeting to order and was chosen chairman of the meeting, with J. W. Mellor as secretary.

After considerable discussion, a motion was carried to perfect a permanent organization, and J. L. Babcock was made permanent chairman; J. W. Mellor, secretary, and Charles Hoffman, treasurer.

The chair was empowered to appoint an executive committee.

Many suggestions were made and the meeting adjourned subject to call of the chairman, after the adoption of the following resolution:

“It is the sense of this meeting that the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the city of Sedalia by General George R. Smith, in May 1859, shall be celebrated in an appropriate manner during the month of May, 1909, the exact date to be fixed later.

“For this purpose an executive committee shall be appointed, consisting of such number as shall be designated by the chairman, embracing all classes of our community. This executive committee shall appoint any and all sub-committees necessary to carry out the program submitted to and adopted by the citizens of Sedalia, when called for such a purpose at a later meeting.

“All money collected towards the expenses of this proposed celebration shall be, as far as possible, expended for services and supplies with business houses and inhabitants of Sedalia, and distributed among as many citizens as practicable.

No officer or member of any committee shall receive pay for their services, except such persons who, by order of the executive committee, shall be designated or engaged for specified service or labor, or for expenses incurred in the interest of this celebration.

“It is expected that every citizen of Sedalia will bear his share by serving in any capacity allotted to him by the executive committee, which shall select such citizens solely on the ground of adaptability and experience for certain duties and requirements, as they may appear during the progress of preparations.

“All meetings of the organization shall be public, and notice thereof shall be given through the newspapers of Sedalia.”

Some are excellent—others, unmentionable.

We claim for Bulte's Best Flour that it is the Best Flour Made—and the object of this advertising is to persuade you to try just one sack of Bulte's Best—try it on our say-so—then let merit decide which brand of flour you'll buy next time. There can only be one result—after a fair trial you will demand Bulte's Best Flour every time and accept no other. Merit—and merit alone—has convinced thousands of housewives that Bulte's Best is really the Best Flour Made.

Why, do you know that over 1,800,000 sacks of

S.S.S. RIDES THE SYSTEM OF CATARRH

Catarrh is a blood disease which causes a general inflammation of the inner linings or mucous membranes of the body. The diseasing of these delicate surfaces and tissues produces all the well known symptoms of the trouble, such as ringing noises in the head and ears, tight, stuffy feeling in the nose, pains above the eyes, irritation of the throat, sometimes slight fever, and a general feeling of weakness and ill health. Even the lungs become affected by the continual passage of impure blood through them, and there is danger of consumption if the disease is allowed to remain in the system. S. S. S. cures Catarrh because it purifies the blood. It goes into the circulation and removes every particle of the catarrhal matter, making the blood pure and healthy. Then the inflamed membranes begin to heal, every symptom disappears, the constitution is built up and health restored. S. S. S. rides the system of catarrh by attacking the trouble at its head and entirely removing the cause from the blood, thus making a permanent and lasting cure. S. S. S. is made entirely from health-giving roots, herbs and barks, and for this reason is an especially safe and desirable medicine. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who write.

HORSE SHOW WAS PROVING GROUND

The Styles and Fabrics Displayed at Madison Square Garden Have Been Accepted by Society as "the Thing."

(By Catherine Mann-Payzant.)

New York, Nov. 27.—Now that the horse show, the first important dress display of the metropolitan social season, is a thing of the past and the modistes and milliners have had time to study the tendencies of the winter's fashions, the dictates of style have become final. As in the past, the Madison Square garden show was the proving ground, and the styles and fabrics displayed there have been accepted as "the thing" for the coming season.

To the question "what is the most popular fabric?" one is puzzled to answer, for there seems to be many fashionable fabrics and it is well that it is so for women now must have so many gowns. The women who attend the horse show are never seen in the same gown twice, and modistes and merchants must provide a great number for both day and evening wear.

There were to be seen many velvets of fine luster, lovely colors and wonderful texture—light, fine and sort to a marvelous degree; satins whose tint surpasses anything ever yet seen in satins; rich clinging crepes; chiffon broadcloths of amazing lightness and silkiness and in a multitude of delicate shades; sheer nets and chiffon cloths and charming silk voiles; liberty silk and meteor and other light weight silks and handsome brocades.

While there was to be noted gowns that depended wholly upon their cut, beauty of line and elegance of finish so becoming to certain figures, there were also gowns that were lavishly trimmed with embroideries and laces and braiding, fringes, passementeries, buttons and insets of other rich fabrics.

In this matter of decoration it would seem that the ingenuity and patience of the makers have been taxed to the utmost, so varied and beautiful are the many modes of application. Trimmed gowns today are a positive extravagance, and outside of the great courts of the past, never were such prices and such elegance of treatment seen.

One directoire model—the directoire modes led at the horse show—was developed in velvet in a deep purple shade and the long jacket was trimmed in passementerie of the same shade. The revers were trimmed with strips of embroidered cloth. The vest was of white brocade decorated with beautiful buttons. The skirt was made with a princess front, was long and clinging.

Chiffon cloth was decidedly a favorite at the horse show. And no material will be used more for the afternoon costume made in semi-princess style. The sleeve should be close-fitting, extending well over the hand and sometimes cut in one with the bodice. A pretty gown of this description would be effective in a plum-colored broadcloth trimmed with a yoke and undersleeves of coarse lace outlined with narrow bands of light brown fur.

Green was a color that was often seen and when trimmed with some soft tinted fur made a very effective development. The skirt was plain in semi-princess cut and dragged about the feet. A semi-loose jacket is made with side slits laced with silken ribbons and trimmed with fringe.

A number of striped and dotted broadcloths were seen, but they have not become a great favorite as yet; indeed, they look too much like the foulards without the softness and suppleness of the foulards. Both dark and light grounds are used with contrasting dots and discs and stripes, although in the latter case one sees more frequently the selected stripe.

Of all colors perhaps gray is after all the most popular. A very handsome costume in this color in French broadcloth was exhibited the other day. The usual long clinging skirt was in evidence, long enough that it had to be held up and it fastened on the left side with large velvet-covered buttons. The jacket was long, open half way up the seams and decorated on each side of the slit with small buttons matching those on the skirt. The sleeves were long with large sleeves having points, big revers opening over a vest of Dresden brocade. The vest was short and from beneath it fell the long sash end of the girdle of liberty silk. The Croyable collar opened in the front and was long enough to show the short Valenciennes jabot. The hat was a silk felt in gray, trimmed with black plumes and a huge moss rose. Gray suede gloves and shoes and purse completed the outfit.

Black believed with some color is frequently seen both in the dressiest affairs as well as on the street. And to the woman who wishes an elegant costume that can be used for many occasions nothing is so serviceable and will serve so many purposes as the black broadcloth or other fine cloth costume.

A little later on in the season the black skirt with the fur jacket will be often seen. The skirt will most frequently be made in princess style with a high girdle and guimpe or yoke and sleeves of heavy lace or net or fine silk.

A style, much affected both in velvet and cloth is the belted coat with the waistline raised above the normal line and defined by a high folded belt of satin.

Many of the coats are literally smothered in soutache and velvet piping and when many coats in a season can be had it is an elegant addition to a wardrobe, but not a good choice where but one garment can be had.

Little fichu wraps trimmed with ermine or other fur of the softer kinds are liked for the afternoon costumes and for receptions or carriage wraps. Some are made of chinchilla costumes and lace or ermine and lace. They are liked for wear over gowns of velvet.

A number of tapestry vests are to be seen in some of the most handsome gowns of the coat and skirt variety. And in nearly every costume that has any tendency towards the directoire cut there is to be seen the long, soft sash of liberty silk. Some of the skirts and heavier waists are also trimmed with bands of the tapestry. And in the tunic models it is a most effective mode.

A directoire skirt with corselet waist and tunic and bodice in a voile of London smoke was banded with a fine thin tapestry showing Dresden colors. The same idea would be handsome carried out in black crepe de chine with bands of black passementerie.

All shades of brown are being exploited, some of a warm brown tint.

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble," by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain in the back, frequent yawning or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nervousness, or "rises" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or more completely than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised. Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

some are dull in color and others of a green shade, and of these last there are some beautiful combinations decorated with black. It is one of the newest and most charming of the newer shades. Hats of bronze-colored velvet trimmed with dull gold ornaments and dark brown or black plumes are very elegant, and as a rule are becoming if the right shade of bronze has been chosen.

Mole color and damson are the two popular shades for this season and the latter is especially liked for millinery purposes. A very handsome turban is of dull silver and head and tail of fur. The fur should give the tone of contrast.

Amber is very fashionable, both as jewelry and as trimming on evening gowns. If any should have an old fashioned amber necklace they are in luck.

More fur is used on hats than is usual this season, and as gray is a popular color, chinchilla is much used on tampe and other shades of gray felt and the ribbed silk shapes.

Rosettes of all sizes are much used and they are most often seen on the fur toques than on any other shape or style of hat. They are usually of a bright color, such as cerise or brown fur draped over with silver net and caught with a huge garnet capuchon.

The "inverted basin" style of hat is extremely well liked and is a little smaller than those of the early season. The trimmings are laid closer to the brim and crown.

For the street line is a well liked color and many blue serges and cashmeres will be seen this winter. The serge is the better goods for the street, but in the light or medium shade the cashmere is unequalled for a house gown.

RED CROSS DAY IN ST. LOUIS

Large Sums Contributed to Swell Hospital Fund.

St. Louis, Nov. 28.—The Red Cross badge of mercy is being worn today by a great majority of the men, women and children of St. Louis, signifying that they have contributed to swelling the hospital fund.

All over the city the badges are being sold and the penny of the newsboy buys the same emblem that the thousand dollars of a wealthy man pays for.

In all the stores, factories, offices, and shops the employees observed the day, and the man who failed to contribute to the cause became highly unpopular among his fellows.

Hospital day has become an annual institution in this city and thousands of dollars will be collected as a result of today's activities.

Every young man should find out if there is work in the navy he enjoys doing. If he is industrious and efficient, promotion will follow with increased pay.

Navy life is interesting. The vessels of the fleet furnish a great variety of employment. The incentive to get ahead, to become smart, quick and practical, is attracting thousands of young men to the service. The opportunities to master a trade appeals to all ambitious young men. The chance to see something of the world and at the same time to save money, does not come to the average young man in civil life.

When a man is up to the navy standard of efficiency he can hold his own in life outside the navy. The navy needs mechanics as well as seamen—electricians, machinists, firemen, carpenters, stenographers, bookkeepers, good cooks, bakers, waiters, musicians, and men for the hospital corps.

The government will train you at its own expense in one of its technical classes. Your pay begins the day you enter. The work is intended to prepare you in a short time for transfer to sea duty.

The quickest way to find out about pay, chances to save and the requirements for enlistment, is to go to the Navy Recruiting Station at Postoffice building, Kansas City, Mo. If living at a distance write the Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department, Washington, D. C.

THE HOMEWARD VOYAGE

OF AMERICAN FLEET FROM MANILA TO HAMPTON ROADS BEGINS DECEMBER 1.

REACH COLOMBO, CEYLON, DEC. 14

Due to Arrive at Suez January 5—Will Be on the Briny Deep During Holidays—Get to Hampton Roads February 21.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Final plans have been made by the navy department for the dispatch of the fleet on its homeward voyage from Manila to Hampton Roads. According to the itinerary, the battleships will sail from the Philippine capital next Tuesday and arrive at Colombo, Ceylon, December 14.

After coaling at Colombo, the fleet will proceed direct to Suez, where it is due to arrive on January 5. The officers and men will spend the Christmas and New Year holidays aloft, but provision has been made for a proper celebration on board all the vessels, and so far as possible, the delicacies of the season will be provided. Owing to the climate, however, it will probably seem little like Christmas to the tars.

The fleet will pass the canal and coal as expeditiously as possible at Port Said. Then the fleet will divide and the different ships go to the following Mediterranean ports.

The Connecticut and the Vermont will arrive at Villefranche January 14 and leave January 27.

The Minnesota and the Kansas will arrive at Marseilles January 14 and leave January 27.

The Georgia, the Nebraska and the Kentucky will arrive at Genoa January 15 and leave January 27.

The Rhode Island and the New Jersey will arrive at Leghorn January 15 and leave January 27.

The Louisiana and the Virginia will arrive at Malta January 15 and leave January 19, arriving at Algiers January 22 and leaving January 26.

The Ohio and the Missouri will arrive at Athens January 13 and leave January 25.

The Wisconsin, the Illinois and the Kearsage will arrive at Naples January 17 and leave January 27.

The first division, consisting of the Connecticut, the Kansas, the Vermont and the Minnesota, will arrive at Negro Bay, January 31. They will coal there and leave February 3, arriving at Gibraltar the same day. The second, third and fourth divisions will arrive at Negro Bay February 1, coal and leave February 6 to join the first division.

The fleet will then steam to Hampton Roads, where it is due to arrive February 21.

The dates of the arrival at the Mediterranean points may vary a day or two; but the standard speed of ten knots an hour, which makes for economical cruising, will be maintained.

The fleet hopes there will be no extensive entertaining on this trip.

Many wives of naval officers will meet the fleet in the Mediterranean in addition to those who will follow the fleet home.

SWEET SPRINGS NEWS

HAPPENINGS IN THE CITY OF HEALTH DURING WEEK JUST PASSED.

A NUMBER OF SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

A New Safe to Take the Place of the Wrecked One in the Bank of Sweet Springs a Week Ago Today.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel. Sweet Springs, Mo., Nov. 28.—Mr. Henry Longan, cashier of the Houston bank, was here Sunday. Miss Odie Berry returned Sunday afternoon from a two weeks' visit at Appleton City.

Mrs. Helen Lyons and daughter, Miss Grace, will leave Tuesday to spend the winter with friends at different points in Kansas.

Mr. Waldo Andrew went to Kansas City Wednesday afternoon to attend the football game.

Miss Elizabeth Reavis, one of the efficient High school teachers, spent Thanksgiving at her home in Lamonte.

Mrs. T. G. Nelson and Mrs. J. H. McGuire were shopping in Sedalia Wednesday.

Mrs. T. A. Smith and two children, Henrietta and Tom, spent Thursday with T. C. Berry and family.

R. Sam Hays and family drove their motor car to Warsaw Saturday, remaining throughout this week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nickols.

Miss Maybelle Bradley, of Sedalia, was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Ed Berry, a part of the week.

Mr. L. D. Tisdale and Miss Eva Tisdale spent the latter part of the week in Kansas City with Miss Virginia Tisdale, and attended the football game Thursday.

Mrs. J. Willis Smith entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Quisenberry, of Sedalia, during their stay here for the declaratory contest.

Mr. Walter Taylor, wife and daughter and Miss Margaret Drake were guests of relatives in Sedalia Sunday.

Miss Lavina Yerby, of Houstonia, made a short visit here with Mrs. J. E. Hocker last week.

Mrs. T. G. Nelson and Mrs. R. E. Smith spent Friday in Houstonia with friends.

Mr. J. E. Barnett came in Wednesday from Oklahoma City for a short visit here.

Miss Julia Holland has returned from Milan, where she had a position in a millinery store.

PRIZE LIST OF $75,000

THIS SUM IN PREMIUMS AT THE INTERNATIONAL LIVE STOCK SHOW.

IT OPENED IN CHICAGO SATURDAY

Will Not Close Until December 10—A Remarkable Feature Is the Large Number of Entries From Canadian Soil.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Smashing all world records in the number of entries, and with a prize list of $75,000, the ninth International Live stock show today opened an exhibition of blue-blooded horses, cattle, hogs and sheep such as has never before been seen anywhere.

The vast International amphitheater is filled to overflowing with the best animals of the world's leading stock raisers, and the display is one that will gladden the heart of any lover of fine stock.

The show will last until December 10, and an attendance of nearly a million people is anticipated. The International Live Stock show is by far the greatest of its kind in the world and this year it will surpass itself.

Remarkable about the list this year is the number of entries received from Canada. All the stock raising centers of the United States are well represented.

The horse and cattle divisions have attracted entries that have been shown at some of the big live stock shows throughout the country and which captured numerous blue ribbons. The entries in these divisions are the most numerous ever listed for a live stock show in the world, it is reported.

The nominations for the different divisions are as follows: Cattle, 1,239; sheep, 905; horses, 765; swine, 258; total, 3,176.

Among the exhibitors is George Adece the famous humorist, who has entered four Clydesdale horses from the Kentland farm in Indiana.

"Some people may take it as a specimen of humor that I should be a genuine exhibitor at the live stock show," remarked Mr. Ade when he sent in his nominations. "But I propose to help Indiana get additional honors for raising horses. I admit the charge that I am a gentleman farmer. But there are extenuating circumstances."

"When I was a lad I learned the difference between Percheron and Clydesdale horses, and seeing a team of the latter in Lafayette one day I made up my mind that some day I would be the owner of the biggest and strongest looking draft animals in the country. If the judges can overlook my indiscretions in the literary line, perhaps the Kentland Clydesdales will get a few bundles of blue ribbons at the big show."

Mr. Ade's horses will be in competition with the fine animals to be shown by the Brookside farm at Fort Wayne, Ind.; Graham Brothers, big Clydesdale breeders, in Canada; the Iowa Agricultural college, as well as the best known stock farms of several states in the Mississippi valley.

Chicago packers are much in evidence in the draft horse division. Armour & Co., Swift & Co. and Morris & Co. having nominated eleven, ten and nine horses, respectively. C. E. Bunn, of Peoria, Ill., makes an entry of six hackneys, while in the Shetland pony division he is the largest nominator.

Not a little added interest attaches to the shorthorn cattle division by the nomination of seven animals from the Kentucky farm of J. V. Haggin. These cattle go into competition with shorthorns from more than ten states. D. R. Hanna, of Ravenna, O., son of the late senator Hanna, with fifteen entries, and F. W. Harding, of Waukesha, Wis., with seventeen entries are going to essay the capture of ribbons from Congressman Frank O. Lowden, of Oregon, Ill.

Among the exhibitors of sheep who will display unusual specimens of Shropshires are Sir William Cooper, of Perkhamsed, Eng.; Henry L. Wardell, the Wall street broker, and Dr. Davidson, of Millbrook, N. Y. Mr. Wardell will be the largest exhibitor.

HOME TESTIMONIALS

MR. CHARLES J. SCHENK.

Mr. Schenk is one of Pettis county's most influential citizens, a large land owner, engaged in the dairy and creamery business. He is widely known and has the respect and confidence of the entire community. Some months ago he came to us suffering from an aggravated rectal fistula, complicated with piles of a cancerous nature, which was rapidly assuming a most serious condition, and by our prompt and energetic method of Painless, Bloodless Surgery treatment for Rectal Diseases he was soon relieved and is now well and happy. His own words can best express his gratitude.

The Dr. Camp Medical Co.

Gentlemen:—It is certainly a pleasure for me to be able to express to you my heartfelt gratitude for what your wonderful Painless Method for the treatment of Rectal Disease has done for me. I had been a constant sufferer for a number of years and could get no relief until I applied to you. The first treatment helped me. I gradually and steadily improved. I therefore can strongly recommend you as specialists of great skill and men of your word, and I will cheerfully answer all inquiries in regard to my case and cure.
